

Disney Cruise Line® Salutes Active and Retired U.S. Military

This spring, Military Personnel can save on a magical 14-Night Transatlantic Cruise on May 12, 2007. Transatlantic ports-of-call include spectacular sights such as: the Pyramids of Guimar and Las Canadas National Park in Tenerife; the world-famous Cadiz open-air market with its ancient streets and numerous cafés; the Great Siege Tunnels of Gibraltar; the architecture and beauty of La Sagrada Familia in Barcelona; and a visit to Disney's own paradise isle, Castaway Cay. While at sea you can live it up or wind it down with unique entertainment, oceans of activities, delicious dining and much more.

14-Night Trans-Atlantic Voyage From:

*Rates valid for 14-Night Eastbound Transatlantic Cruise commencing 5/12/2007. Rate valid for stateroom Category 12. Third, fourth and fifth Guest price valid with two full-fare Guests in the same stateroom. Government taxes and fees and excursions are not included. See Disney Cruise Line® brochure for details and applicable terms and conditions. Other discounts do not apply. Rates in U.S. dollars. Proof of Active Military ID, activation papers, or retired Military ID will be required within 7 days of booking by faxing to 407-566-7739. Air Force, Army, Marines, Navy and Coast Guard are eligible for this offer. National Guard and Reservists are eligible with copy of duty orders showing they were active for a period of time along with a valid Military ID. Family members of Active Deceased personnel are also eligible for this offer.

For more information, contact:

Fort Detrick TicketFunatic
1520 Freedman Drive, Suite 300, Room 143
301-619-2839 DSN 343-2839 Fax 301-619-2839
usagticketfunatic@amedd.army.mil

